

Christmas Fair – Saturday 2nd December – 11.00am – 2.00pm

Friday 1st December – Children are invited to wear their own clothes to school and donate the following:

Reception and Nursery – Cakes for the cake stall

Year 1 and Year 2 – Chocolate for the tombola

Years 3 – 6 – Bottles for the bottle tombola

If you enjoy baking – we would welcome additional donations of cakes.

We are also collecting good quality soft toys, and good quality school uniform. Please hand any donations in to the school office.

Hillcroft Trends, the childrens clothes shop in the High Street, has kindly offered to sell the second hand uniform on our behalf, all proceeds will go to the Friends of Hillcroft. Hillcroft Trends will also be at the Christmas Fair with a selection of new childrens clothes and second hand uniform at reasonable prices.

Playtimes

Do you have any dolls to recycle? We are looking for donations of dolls for the nursery and reception children to play with during lunch time play. We would also be grateful for donations of large tonka toy type trucks that the children can push along and use on the play road.

Action for Carers Surrey

Surrey Young Carers works with young carers and their families and creates opportunities for young carers to socialise with other children and young people who are in a similar position. They work to reduce the impact of caring by providing support and opportunities. For more information see the links below.
